

Pets

We are quite willing to accept birds and fish into the home but these will be looked after at your own expense i.e. food, veterinary fees, etc. (In the case of birds, they must have a medical check by a veterinary surgeon before admission as they can carry diseases which affect the lungs of humans).

We encourage families to bring pets in to visit so long as they are house trained, friendly and docile.